The invited guests will be chiefly the members, present and past, of the Society; together with such personal friends of his and sympathizers in the general line of his teachings as may be willing to cheer the evening with their presence.

The Reception will be by card, but wholly informal and simple in its character. A few words are hoped for from one of the invited guests who may feel disposed to offer them.

I am directed by the Committee of arrangements to ask you to be of the Society's special guests for the occasion, and to express their earnest hope that you will be present, and to say that they would wish to charge themselves with the expense of your

Dear Sir,

Rev. O. B.

Mr. Frothingham, as you probably have heard, is going abroad in May for rest and recreation, to be gone a year or more. His Society are desirous of marking the interruption of his pastoral connection with them and the close of twenty years of a singularly faithful ministry in some manner which shall leave a pleasing glow in his memory as he travels in foreign lands, - and the Trustees have decided upon a Social Reception in his honor, to be held at the Union League Theatre, Tuesday evening, April 22nd.
